BY-LAWS

OF THE

BEACON SOCIETY.

THE BEACON SOCIETY OF BOSTON is organized for the purpose of advancing the material, commercial, and social prosperity of the City of Boston, and of the members of the Beacon Society, and a free and unrestrained interchange of views upon all topics pertaining to its objects.

1. The Society shall consist of those by whom this Constitution is framed and adopted, and such others as may be admitted to it, provided that the membership shall not exceed sixty.

2. The officers shall consist of a President, two Vice-Presidents, a Secretary and a Treasurer, who with four other members of the Society shall constitute an Executive Committee, having the general management of the affairs of the Society with authority to call special meetings whenever they deem it advisable. They shall be elected annually at the December meeting. The offices of Secretary and Treasurer may be filled by one person. At the November meeting the President shall appoint two members as a Committee to audit the accounts of the Treasurer, which Committee shall report at the annual meeting.

3. Nominations for membership shall be made in writing to the Executive Committee, and if approved by them shall be reported to the Society by their names being placed on the notice of the next regular meeting after such approval, and such names shall be balloted for at that meeting. Ballots having the words accepted and postponed shall be used. Five bearing the word postponed shall be sufficient to defer the admission of a candidate. An entrance fee of twenty-five dollars shall be paid on admission, and an annual fee of fifty dollars.

4. The Society shall meet on the fourth Saturday in each month from October to April inclusive, excepting when the Executive Committee may change the day, or omit a meeting, which they shall have authority to do.

5. Any member may invite guests to be present at a meeting of the Society by notifying the Secretary the day previous, and shall be assessed for their guests such sum as the Executive Committee may direct.

6. Any member who shall fail to pay his annual fee for a space of two months after he shall have been notified by the Treasurer that the same is due, shall be liable to forfeit his membership at the discretion of the Executive Committee. Any member whose membership shall be so declared forfeited by the Executive Committee shall not be reinstated, except in the manner provided in the case of original applications for membership.

7. These articles may be amended by a two-thirds' vote of the members present at any meeting of the Society; notice of the proposed amendment being printed on the call for the meeting, and having been published at a previous meeting.
